RE:JESUS

NOVEMBER 21 & 22, 2009

Jesus the Revolutionary (Pastor Laurence East)

A. Part of our theme in 2009 has been '3,2,1' - reminding ourselves of the fact that we exist for the mission of Jesus.

That mission occurs in three main places:

- our neighborhood
- the city
- the world

We've asked you to consider focusing on 2 practices:
Prayer & The Word

But perhaps most importantly we want you to regularly pour into ONE other person - we call it 'a conversation'.

Discuss in your group:

1. How you see your mission as Christ-followers in each of the three places.

1. How you see your mission as Christ-followers in each of the three places.

- 2. How you're doing in each of the two practices.
- 3. And finally IF you are in an intentional ongoing conversation, and how that's working out.

B. After briefly reviewing this week's message, share one thing that most challenged, puzzled, or encouraged you.

C. If loving God and others is a foundation to the Jesus revolution, then it is important to understand what love is. How would you define or explain love?

D. What is the significance of the "as yourself" part in the second commandment Jesus mentions?

E. In the three possibilities of love relationships (with God, neighbors, and self) where are you the strongest? The weakest? What have you found helps love grow in each area?
